Business Conditions In Santa Ana Improve

DEPOSITS IN BANKS SHOW AN INCREASE

Agriculturists Beginning to Receive Money For Crops, Reports Assert
OPTIMISTIC TREND
Merchants Declare Sales Are Improving During Each Successive Month

A NEW SPIRIT of optimism flowed through the business and financial channels of Santa Ana institutions today, bringing a distinctively new feeling of confidence in its wake.

Smiles were in order among bankers and business men as they reported a definite increase in banking deposits and resources and business conditions in general and particular.

What's the matter with Santa Ana? Nothing, according to the reports received today in a survey made by The Register.

Optimism coursed not only in the business and banking circles of Santa Ana, but overflowed to all parts of the county as agriculturists were beginning to receive money for current crops.

A definite gain in deposits and resources at the Commercial National bank was reported by A. I. Mellenthin, vice president, who announced an increase of $77,000 in bank deposits during the last three months. He interpreted this gain to better business conditions and the fact that there is more money in circulation.

Deposits in the Santa Ana branch of the Security First National bank reveal a gain of 50 per cent over the same time last year, according to Frank Was, manager. Was was most optimistic in announcing that commercial loans have shrunk 40 per cent over last year at this time. "This shows a very healthy condition," he said, "and proves that merchants are able to pay off short time loans."

Real estate loans, he reported, have shown an increase of 10 per cent.

R. C. Raddant, manager of the Santa Ana branch of the Bank of America, announced an increase of 50 per cent in deposits over the same period last year. "This," he said, "reveals many encouraging improvements not only in the position of the county but in the state as a whole."

VANDEGRIFT SEEKS AUDIT ON HIS WORK

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 15.—(UP)—Against a background of threatened legislative and grand jury investigations, Rollo A. Vandegrift, state director of finance, today took the initiative in bringing about an audit of his bond transactions in behalf of the state.

Vandegrift requested Governor Rolph to invite the California group of the Investment Bankers of America to examine his investment of state funds.

The inquiry, Vandegrift declared, would disclose he had made a profit for the state of more than $500,000, rather than a loss of $100,000 as charged by State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson.

GOV. ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK AT ARSENAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 15.—(UP)—Protests raised here indicated today that Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt will speak at the state arsenal when he addresses voters here October 21 rather than at Abraham Lincoln's tomb, as had been suggested.

The tomb had been proposed as a site for the speech by the Democratic state speakers bureau.

Judge Ben S. Deboise of probate court protested this would be "sacrilege" and Chauncey I. Fenkins, attorney, said he would ask an injunction to prevent the address there.

As a result of this criticism it was believed the arsenal would be chosen for the meeting.

GARNER FLAYS HOOVER ON HIS IOWA ADDRESS

Says President "Libelled" Credit of Country in Des Moines Speech

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—(UP)—President Hoover "libelled" the credit of his country, decried his people and claimed credit for all constructive legislation adopted in a Democratic congress, it is charged by John Nance Garner, a Texan the Republicans said had been "muzzled" by Democratic leaders.

Garner made his charges last night in his first eastern campaign address. The address obviously was intended to answer President Hoover's Des Moines speech and at the same time launch a counter attack on charges that the Democratic party lacks leadership in congress where Garner is speaker of the house.

He quoted the president at Des Moines:

"The secretary of the treasury informed me that unless we could put into effect a remedy, we could hold the gold standard but two weeks longer because of inability to meet the demands of foreigners and our own citizens for gold."

Then he continued:

"The president gravely told you that we were within two weeks of world collapse, 10 years of misery, and revolution, and were only saved by the address, promptness and wisdom of the administration."

"I can tell you without fear of contradiction that to say we were within two weeks of the edge of the gold standard because of any lack of gold is a libel on the credit of the United States."

The Democratic vice presidential candidate referred to the Glass-Steagall act, framed by a "Democratic majority."

PUBLIC WORKS CONDITIONS IN ILLINOIS COAL LAUNCH PROBE FIELD SERIOUS

New Administrator Acting On Orders From Governor to Investigate

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 15.—(UP)—With orders from Governor Rolph to make an investigation into the affairs of his predecessors in the department of public works, Earl Lee Kelly, new director, today announced he was "making headway."

The first evidence uncovered by Kelly allegedly involves James I. Herz, who as deputy director of public works, was ousted Monday along with his superior, Colonel Walter E. Garrison, director.

Although Kelly said he had not yet found any evidence of wrongdoing on the part of Herz, he had letters showing that the former deputy director had sought to have specifications for the manufacture of 1932 and 1933 automobile license plates drawn up in such a manner that only one or two companies in California could handle the contract.

Governor Rolph announced that after the story that he had ordered the investigation appeared in San Francisco papers last night, Herz had telephoned him asking "what it was all about."

"I told him that if he is without blame he would welcome an investigation," said the governor. Rolph was also informed last night that shortly after being removed from the department of

STUDIO SUES FOR FEES FROM ACTOR

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 15.—(UP)—"Inexcusable delays caused by his absence from the set," formed the basis today for an unprecedented complaint filed against Lee Tracy, motion picture actor, by his employer, the R.K.O.-Radio studio, which asked $10,000 "conciliation fees."

The complaint was filed with the conciliation committee of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, which recently settled salary differences between James Cagney and Warner Brothers studio.

The studio charged that Tracy, without cause or notice, absented himself 10 or 11 times during rehearsal of a picture, causing postponements in the shooting. It asked $10,000 from the actor, the studio has withheld $3500 of his salary, according to Daniel T. O'Shea, studio counsel.

Department Refuses To Heed Demand

Hold Evidence Insufficient And Attorneys to Ask For Affidavits

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—(UP)—Two representatives of the Illinois state attorney's office today applied to the state department for a presidential warrant for the arrest in Greece of Samuel Insull jr., one time Chicago utilities magnate.

The department delayed issuing the warrant, holding the evidence submitted was insufficient.

The two attorneys, Charles A. Bellows and Andrew Vlachos, said they would send to Chicago immediately for the needed additional evidence and would wait here until it arrived.

The attorneys submitted to Joseph Baker, assistant legal adviser of the state department, certified copies of the indictments against Insull. The additional papers needed, it was understood, included affidavits from witnesses in the case against the utility magnate.

SON PLANS VISIT
ATHENS, Oct. 15.—(UP)—Samuel Insull today was advised that his son, Samuel Insull jr., "unfailingly" will arrive next week from Paris and later will return to the United States.

Insull sr., is wanted in Chicago to face indictments in connection with collapse of his utilities interests.

Mrs. Insull will remain in Paris because of her health.

Insull conferred with his Greek attorneys and planned moves to frustrate further efforts of the American legation or Chicago authorities to extradite him. Insull probably will travel for several days in other parts of Greece.

This was the statement of Congressman Phil D. Swing released here today, according to the Press. The congressman made the statement following an address by him at the Rotary club. He said further:

"I regret that there seems to be some misunderstanding regarding my position in this campaign among the voters of my district."

"I have said repeatedly that President Hoover is entitled to the highest credit for the construction program he put through congress and we are already beginning to feel the good effects of it. He deserves re-election and certainly has my support to that end."

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 15.—(UP)—A fourth member of an asserted kidnaping ring was under arrest here today as officers resumed their investigation into the reputed plot to kidnap Clarence C. White, Cleveland millionaire, and Dr. Charles Lombard, wealthy Redlands physician.

The asserted plot was disrupted yesterday when sheriff's deputies seized Lombard, who is no kin to the Redlands physician, and two companions.

Three young children recently were treated at Tulare hospital for thallium poisoning after they had eaten a quantity of grain they found on a ranch. All recovered.

Even Cows Go To Night Clubs In N. Y.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—(UP)—Diners at Sardi's, popular restaurant in the heart of the theatrical district, stared in astonishment when a cow walked in the door.

The cow gazed benignly about, and seeing no hay, walked out.

Outside, a bystander phoned Madison Square Garden for a cowboy from the rodeo to take charge. None was present so several spectators tried to lasso the animal and failed.

Patrolman G. L. Smith appeared, and with all the skill of a trained toreador, removed his coat, waved it to attract the cow's attention, then slipped a noose over its head.

HOOVER LAUDED BY J. L. McNABB IN TALK HERE

Democratic Congress Attacked For Failure to Balance Budget

SPEAKING here last night at a Republican rally in the Elbel clubhouse sponsored by the Women's Hoover-Curtis club of Orange county, John L. McNabb, of San Francisco, eulogized Herbert Hoover as the nation's most powerful president and attacked the Democratic congress for failure to balance the budget.

"Hoover," he declared, "is the most powerful president the nation has ever had and this is no time to experiment with the prosperity of the people of the United States."

Placing the blame for failure to balance the national budget on the doorstep of a Democratic House of Representatives, McNabb said that the first attempt to balance the budget was made through increasing the income tax.

When this failed President Hoover went before the Democratic house and offered a plan for balancing the budget through a manufacturers' sales tax that would have achieved the desired purpose without injuring any single group. This was rejected and a policy of "soak the poor" adopted and postage rates were increased.

Republican Party's Tariff Defended By Hoover at Cumberland Early Today

TALKS IN CLEVELAND

Chief Executive Will Make Ten Stops And Talks On Way to Destination

A BOARD PRESIDENT Hoover's train enroute to Cleveland, Cumberland, Md., Oct. 15.—(UP)—President Hoover delivered a stout defense of the Republican party's protective tariff policy in a brief plea for the support of Maryland's electorate at Cumberland today.

The President told a mildly demonstrative throng of about six thousand gathered at the station for the 10 minute pause that "even if no other reminders were needed, the mills of Cumberland would recall the importance of the protective tariff."

"If it were not for the Republican party," he declared from the back platform of his special train, "these celanese mills would be closed down this minute."

The Cumberland speech was the second of 10 back platform talks on the President's schedule as his train rolled westward toward Cleveland, where he makes his second major political speech of the campaign at 8:30 p. m. tonight.

Meanwhile leaders of opposing factions within the Republican party riding with the President as far as Cumberland announced they had composed their difficulties and would fight "in unison for the reelection of Herbert Hoover."

The leaders in the conference up from Washington were (Galen L. Tait, collector of internal revenue at Baltimore; John Philip Hill, former congressman and leader of the wet bloc in the house and State Senator Wallace Williams, of Elkton, Md., candidate for U. S. sen-

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

ANTOFAGASTA Chile, Oct. 15.—(To the Editor of The Register): You remember such a fuss one time over a country between Peru and Chile called Tacna Arica? Well, I was there today. It takes an aeroplane to find it. It would be just like us going to war with somebody over Death Valley, Cal. They said there today that I was the only American ever there that wasn't sent by the United States government as a commission to settle it. This is the heart of the great nitrate region of Chile. We are right at this moment as I am writing this flying over some of the mines. They are not mines, they are right out on a flat prairie desert and they just scrape it almost off the top of the ground. It's just like plowing up potatoes. I can get some mighty cheap and both political parties was needing it mighty bad when I left. Was I talking about rain the other day. Well, we have had 2000 miles of solid desert where it never rains. That's a fact. It was never known to rain. It's drier than my old friend Upshaw's platform. Peru is the inca country. In fact every country has become the inca country—red ink. Excuse me for that one, but remember we are living at 13,000 feet. It's the altitude that makes you lightheaded.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

HOOPER LAUNCHED BY J. L. McNABB IN TALK HERE

Every time you pay three cents for a stamp that last year cost you two cents," he shouted. "You are paying tribute to a Democratic House of Representatives. You pay tribute through the two cent tax for every check you write, you pay this tribute through the tax on light and power bills, when you purchase automobile tires or any of the other taxable commodities."

Failure of the Democratic house to balance the budget, McNabb said, shattered the confidence of the people and they started withdrawing their funds from banking houses. This, following the attempts of foreign powers to beggar the nation, at one time during the past year placed the United States within two weeks of going off the gold standard.

While the nation was facing this critical situation Hoover was laboring in silence to save the financial structure of the United States and faced the vilification of Hearst and his newspapers and scoffing of the people led by his great chain of papers.

Hoover labored and suffered in silence while the public took its cue from Hearst and joined in the scoffing. When the time comes that a nation shall be governed by the policy of Hearst and his "yellow journals" it is time to pause and think.

"Should Roosevelt be elected to the presidency, through the efforts of Hearst he will be knifed in the back within six months of the time he takes office if Hearst cannot run the government."

McNabb replied to Hearst's charges that Hoover is "the boot-licker of Europe" and, if re-elected, intends to cancel the debts of Europe by quoting the president to the effect that the debts are honest and shall not be cancelled.

"It was not Herbert Hoover nor the Republican party who created these debts," he declared. "It was Carter Glass and California's own William Gibbs McAdoo who turned the money over to Europe and now McNabb is coming over the top and saying that the debts he created will be cancelled."

"During the war when money was raised through great Liberty and Victory bond drives Europe was to participate and subscribe bonds to America in proportion as security for money advanced by America."

"It was McAdoo who turned the money over to Europe without security. The promised bonds were never turned over to this nation and we were faced with a great debt and not even a scrap of paper to acknowledge it."

"After the Armistice McAdoo went before Congress and proposed to loan $1,800,000,000 to Europe for reconstruction. At that time he said that he did not have the power to make the loan without congressional authority. This authority was refused and then McAdoo, apparently decided that he did have the power and made the loan. In addition to this loan he gave $100,000 to Russia; $25,000 to Liberia and $250,000 to Czechoslovakia, a nation that was just being formed, and had neither a president nor congress and could not sign a note."

"During the Coolidge administration this situation was cleared up and the debts acknowledged. Now McNabb is depicting the possibility that Hoover will cancel the debts that he created."

"Hoover has declared that these debts will never be cancelled to permit the debtor nations using the money for purchase of armaments to carry on more wars. They shall be held as a method of other nations to remain within the boundaries of peace."

Referring to tariff McNabb said "There is nothing inspiring about tariff any more than there is inspiration in washing the dinner dishes but tariff is the one thing that supports California."

"The Democratic platform favors competitive tariff. That means that California orange and walnut growers will have to compete with Mediterranean countries where labor can be secured for five cents a day and the laborer will work from sunup to sundown. The result is not concerned with the west and its economic problem. It is concerned with getting walnuts and oranges as cheap as possible."

"When we start competition on an equal basis with Europe it will not be long until the banks take over our ranches and groves. We would have to cut our high wages to the level of five cents a day European worker and that means ruin for we would never place our people on the same footing as the poor paid European."

Outlining the achievements of Hoover's administration, McNabb said that four years ago, when Alfred E. Smith was the Democratic candidate for president, the Democratic party, under the leadership of John J. Raskob started the slogan against Hoover, "What Has He Done?"

"What has he done?" "In this nation's darkest hour of the depression Hoover realized that some plan of self-liquidating public works must be prepared to solve the unemployment situation. To meet this situation he evolved the

RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION

"This plan is now in operation and is not only providing employment for thousands of men but has been the means of saving our banks and life insurance companies from ruin."

"The life insurance companies are the nation's greatest investors in bonds and securities. When securities began to drop the insurance companies' reserves started depreciating and at least six of the major companies were on the brink of disaster. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation took over the companies' securities for loans that saved them from ruin."

"Right here in your own community the banks asked for and received aid from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation because they did not want to foreclose mortgages on property here and were in need of cash."

"The Reconstruction Finance Corporation already has poured $110,000,000 into California to save financial institutions and to provide work for the unemployed and then they ask 'What has he done?'"

"Through this one plan alone, evolved by Hoover, California has received $40,000,000 for use on the Metropolitan Water district project which will employ thousands of men."

"The Reconstruction Finance Corporation also has purchased bonds in the San Francisco-Oakland bridge project to the extent of $62,000,000 and through this financial assistance has provided work for approximately 6000 men."

"This crisis through which we are now passing is not the only crisis in the history of the nation but we have been passing through the greatest economic crisis which was due during the second administration of Woodrow Wilson but averted when America entered the World war. When we go slowly into a crisis, slowly we come out of it."

"When the nation went into this crisis we heard a great many prophecies and today the political and economic graveyard is filled with the skeletons of these Wall Street financial prophets."

"The plan for a great leader was heard on every side and Herbert Hoover answered that plan. He is the only man who has made one single vital suggestion to solve the problem of the nation and now we are asked to repudiate him and try an experiment."

Presiding the talk by McNabb, Mrs. Marie Thurston of Laguna Beach spoke briefly telling "Why the Women are for Hoover."

Howard Irwin of Fullerton, chairman of the Republican County Central committee, opened the meeting and introduced Mrs. Louise Mock, president of the Women's Hoover-Curtis club of Orange county, who presided and introduced the speakers.

Mrs. Mock also introduced State Senator Nels T. Edwards, candidate for re-election; Sam Collins, candidate for Congress from this district; and James B. Utt, candidate for assembly.

FINALE
Mr. Hoover's handymen were turned into bookworms recently by Presidential order. They bored in to the Congressional Record collecting data on Democratic activities at the last session. Their idea is to use the material in closing speeches. Names will be named. Those who advocated inflationary legislation will be re-exposed. The question then will be asked: "You people do not want these Democrats in control do you?"

This item is to be a main feature of the last act.

SUSPENSE
It looks as if the French are straining us along about the proposed commercial treaty. They are all smiles during negotiations. Always they start for the door when it comes time for action. Really in a hiatus awaiting the outcome of our election. There are strong inner indications that recent delays on war debts, disarmament, Manchuria and world economic conference are due to the fact that we are about to choose a President.

Action will shape quickly afterward.

OHIO
Downstate Republicans were displeased that President Hoover chose Cleveland as the spot for his Ohio speech.

That is a progressive town. LaFollette nearly carried the county in 1924. The last time Mr. Hoover was there (two years ago) Communists staged a station riot. Several skulls were rapped by police.

Folks who should know say Mr. Hoover would have helped himself more by going nearly any place else in that pivotal state.

CHEER
The decision for Cleveland was pressed by Postmaster General Brown. He was pushed by Carmel Thompson, the Cleveland chairman. They were unmoved by the city Republican situation which has become ever more involved since the indictment of Maurice Maschke, the local Republican leader.

A recent Colorado visitor to the White House filled the President's car with glowing political tales. He predicted a Republican sweep in the West. Outside to his friends he told an amazingly different story. He said he did not think it possible to save the Republican cause.

That kind of two-faced reporting is breeding a complicated situation. Some Republicans are complaining against what they call the "defeatism propaganda" in the press.

Many of these gloomy Republican political pieces you see are printed sponsored by Republican authorities. Their idea apparently is to cheer up those in command while telling the situation more bluntly to their friends.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG -- News Behind the News --

WASHINGTON
By Paul Mallon

GOLD
The Treasury ducked during the gold standard argument. There was a reason. Experts there did not fully agree with Mr. Hoover's Des Moines speech. They mildly advised against the President's interpretation before it was delivered. One tried unsuccessfully to get Treasury Secretary Mills on the long distance telephone.

An okay is supposed to have been put on the speech by the Federal Reserve Board crowd.

Down underneath you will find there was never any actual--only a theoretical--possibility that we would go off gold.

What actually happened behind the scenes was this: Many private persons here and abroad were afraid last spring to let their money remain in open investments. They hoarded gold and currency. Certain measures were required to prevent that situation from ruining all credit. These measures were advocated by the Gold Trusts Meyer and Mills recommended by President Hoover and passed by Congress without a struggle.

Another way of doing it would have been to go off the gold standard. That would have required legislation by Congress. Nobody ever considered that phase of it here either secretly or publicly. It was unthinkable.

Those who like to sell America short took advantage of Mr. Hoover's Des Moines statements for another raid on the dollar. They did not get anywhere because the dollar is just as good money as you can get nowadays.

France could have withdrawn all her gold last spring and we would still have been on the gold standard. Mills once said he wished she would so the bad psychology of gold could be stopped once and for all.

The best financial authorities in government confidentially feel it would be a good idea to drop this gold standard argument right now. Indications are that course will be followed.

COTTON
Complaints are sweeping in from the South about the last cotton report. They say some had an advance tip and sold short. A leak in the government crop reporting agency is suspected. That does not appear to be the case.

A certain adviser close to the Farm Board told some friends a week before the Oct. 8th cotton report what he thought it was going to be. It turned out exactly that way.

He could hardly have had authentic figures that far in advance. It looked like just good guessing. This explanation has not satisfied some aroused forces. The situation may be aired in Congress in December.

REPUBLICAN STRATEGY calls for an especially concentrated effort in Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin between now and election. Hoover's speech at Cleveland here is that if they can push these five states across the line they have a chance of pulling through a national victory. Both party headquarters here give them a chance of stopping Roosevelt in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. The outlook for carrying Illinois is very dim and Wisconsin is practically hopeless.

Colonel Donovan is swinging in to action with an exceptionally strong and unified state organization behind him. His support is in sharp contrast to the lack of assistance given Charles H. Tuttle at the last election. The military background is being played up effectively.

Conditions in Illinois coal field serious

In Christian county are the richest of the Midland field mines. Black coal tips the hills against the hilly landscape. In little villages clustered about the soot-darkened mine shafts, live about 2500 miners and their families. During years of prosperity they earned good wages. Most of them own their homes, many of them quite imposing.

Practical Psychological Methods in Family Life is the subject chosen for study by the parental education class of the adult education department under direction of Dr. Regina Westcott-Wiemann, at the session in the Willard cafeteria yesterday morning.

Enrollments may still be made in the class it was announced today by Mrs. Golden Weston, director of adult education, and should be made at once. The class meets weekly on Fridays from 2:30 to 11:30 a. m. A nursery school is being conducted for children of pre-school age whose mothers desire to attend the parental classes. It is held at the Congregational church bungalow, with Miss Annetta J. Ramsey in charge.

BUSINESS HERE REPORTED AS BEING BETTER

Contrary to the opinions held by many, banks in Santa Ana are making loans and managers of all banks reported that they are taking care of their customers and are making loans on any legitimate enterprise.

Four crops are being harvested now in the county--beans, walnuts, peaches and oranges. C. S. Crookshank, president of the First National bank pointed out today. "The bean crop is very large, the quality excellent, prices fair," he declared.

"The walnut crop is very large, prices are fair and quality is good. The beet crop is large, quality is good and the prices are fair. There has been no walnut money yet and only the first payment on beets. That money will be coming in fast now and of itself should make business good here for the balance of the season."

"The general expression of the people is encouraging. The merchants are all reporting increased trade. There is no more pessimistic talk. Large amounts of money are now coming out of hiding. In one instance a national bank in a nearby city reports that $75,000 in $1,000 bills was deposited by one person."

"In respect to our own institution, I am glad to say that there has been an increase in activity for the first two weeks of October over the preceding two weeks of 27 per cent. The increase in activity for the first two weeks of October over the same period of August is 39 per cent. The increase in bank deposits for the first two weeks of October over the preceding two weeks is approximately 25 per cent."

George Dunton, Ford dealer, declared today that September was the fourth consecutive month to show an increase in sales over the previous month. "There has been a steadily increasing evidence," he said "of the people losing their fear of conditions and the future. Also we have noticed that people are beginning to spend money to improve the appearance of their cars."

Circulation Jumps
Field men and carrier boys of The Register have reported an increase in production of circulation in September and the early part of October, according to R. M. Conklin, circulation manager. The gain in circulation in the past 15 days has been greater than any time of the past year, he said. Field men have reported that many more men are working than previously.

The last month was the biggest month of the year in the Montgomery-Ward store here, according to J. E. Madden, manager. The last month, he said, is 27 per cent ahead of last year, while the

WILL BE SENT TO MOTHER IN EASTERN CITY

Two babies, one 26 months old, the other just 14 months of age, were taken away from an unemployed father in a hobo camp at Newport Beach yesterday afternoon, when deputy sheriffs, inspecting the place happened to find them.

Both are sick. They were taken to the county hospital for observation and will be sent back to their mother in Chicago, while the father, arrested on suspicion of committing a felony, was today released from jail and told to go his way—without the children.

The father is Leroy Halfacre, who claims that he and his wife started for California in their car, but that he had a fight with her in Salt Lake City, at which time she deserted him and the children.

There was nothing else for him to do but to take the children with him, he said. They came to California in the car, and after reaching here the car was stolen from him by a man he had befriended on the road, after giving him a long ride.

His story did not sound plausible to local officers however who checked it and found it to be reasonably correct, the sheriff's office reported. No record was found regarding the theft of the car.

Children Cared For

Without proper care, the children, at their age, naturally suffered and but for the lucky discovery of them, serious results may have developed.

The children will be placed in an authorized home here for the time being and fed proper food and given proper shelter. When they are strong enough to travel they will be sent to their mother, who according to the Chicago police is now residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoelzer of 407 West 66th place, in Chicago.

Both children are little girls. One is Delphine, 26 months and the other Sally Jean, 14 months.

Several hundred persons jammed the limited capacity of the chambers, necessitating the addition of extra chairs according to Jules Markel, presiding chairman.

Frank Harwood, Democratic candidate for state assembly, spoke briefly upon the urgent need of this district's proper representation in Sacramento. Harwood touched upon several past instances of "vicious" legislation practiced at the state capitol, quoting the Sharkey bill, which he had helped to defeat as a private citizen. Harwood promised his unlimited energy, if elected to safeguard the best interest of the people of his district from this sort of future legislation.

Dave Wetlin, candidate for state senate, also told of his desire to serve the electorate of this county in Sacramento. Wetlin related several instances of apparently extravagant expenditures by the state administration, stating that when the present governor attained office, there was a balance in the state treasury of 30 millions of dollars. Wetlin quoted the report that indications pointed to a 30 million dollar deficit at the expiration of the present governor's term. He promised his most studious efforts in a desire to correct these evils, if sent to Sacramento.

James Davis, Santa Ana attorney, in his address quoted Mr. Hoover in his Des Moines address, in which the president stated that "we are now on the upgrade, now able to pay our bills as we go."

Then Davis read a report emanating from treasury department issued on October 1, 1932, just three days before Mr. Hoover's address; the report stated that for the first quarter of the fiscal year of 1933, the Federal income was about four millions, and the expenditures were over eight millions.

"In other words, my friends," Davis continued, "for every dollar our government takes in, it is spending $2."

The body of P. E. Cox, operator of the Oasis market at 2805 North Main street, who was killed in an automobile accident at Orland, near Marysville, early yesterday morning, will be sent to Marshall, Ill. for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox came to Santa Ana about nine months ago. Mrs. Cox left for the north immediately after receiving a wire telling of her husband's death.

Cox was trucking pears and apples from Oregon to Santa Ana at the time of the accident.

Word was received in Santa Ana this morning of the death of Mrs. Emma Schuerman, formerly a resident of Santa Ana and Orange, at her home, 736 South Meringo avenue, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Schuerman was the mother of H. Schuerman of Santa Ana. Her services will be held at the home of the deceased on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be in the cemetery at Inglewood.

B. Z. McKinney, Democratic candidate for congress from this district, returned last night from a two day speaking tour that took him into San Bernardino and Riverside counties where he delivered six addresses. Thursday night he spoke twice, once in San Bernardino and once in Ontario.

Hallman, is heard at the regular meeting of the board on October 28.

Three Apply For Job
Applications for the position are to be made in writing and qualifications for the position are to be stated. It was decided after some discussion. Applications were received from Mrs. Charles Harper, Mrs. McCandless, Mrs. John Cain, and Mrs. Alice Shull, yesterday and an oral application was made by Mrs. Nina Esterbrook.

In resigning Mrs. Perry stated that he felt that a great amount of work would fall to the president with a new worker unfamiliar with the field and that as he expected to be out of town, he believed that he would be unable to give the amount of time needed. He declared that he was willing to help in the work in any other way.

112 Men Aided
Attention was called to the fact that 112 men were given food at the welfare store last month. Means of lessening the number of transients was discussed. It was suggested that men applying for food at the welfare store be referred to the police department and that they must have the recommendation of this department in order to be fed.

A suggestion was made that a police officer visit the welfare store on his daily rounds and that it might be a good idea to have an officer at the store from 4 p. m. until 7 p. m., as many men apply for food between these hours at homes in the city and they then could be referred to the welfare store.

Rose Stuckey told board members that the persons who really suffered in the city last winter were the ones who would not ask for help. It was decided to refuse help to any one who had been refused aid by the county.

Questionnaires sent out to various organizations were returned and it was reported that 10 organizations were entirely satisfied with the welfare work, 10 were not quite satisfied and seven were neutral. Thirty-four questionnaires were sent out and 27 were returned.

Policy Discussed
V. D. Johnson discussed the welfare store policy and members of the board decided that garments and other articles were to be given to those in need. Small sums could be paid for them if desired or those needing things in the store could work to earn them, if they wished. The woodpile is to be continued. It was stated, Johnson offered 35 outing flannel capes used in the Queen Valencia court.

Mrs. Robert B. Johnson, head of the Orange Red Cross chapter, reported that 589 yards of blue shirting, 742 yards of gingham, with bolts all in different patterns, had been received here and that 500 yards of sheeting had been given out. Members of the P-T. A. are assisting working mothers in sewing, she said.

DONS MEET NAVY ELEVEN AT BOWL TOIGHT

HOOKS and SLIDES

by WILLIAM BRAUCHER

Have you a letter signed by Knute Rockne? ... there's a good chance the handwriting is that of Knute Rockne, his former secretary, who signed nearly all of Rock's correspondence ... and autographed for him, as well.

Ruth is secretary to Chick McLean now, at Manhattan ... she says that in the six years she was with him, Rock probably signed 10 letters ... but she made her handwriting conform so nearly to his that Rock himself couldn't tell the difference.

BE A JOCKEY! MAKE $150 TO $300 A WEEK!

It sounds like an advertisement for one of those mail order "nifty" suit houses, but it's pretty close to fact, at that ... the way jockeys have been knocking down the scratch in these alleged days of depression ... take the scale of pay at Lincoln Fields, for example. A boy gets $10 per mount, whether he brings it in the same day or not ... if he wins his fee is $25 ... suppose the little fellow rides five horses a day ... and has five or six winners a week ... see how the money rolls in ... wonder if they could use a jockey weighing close to 200?

NEW YORK COMISH STILL DOING THINGS

The New York athletic commission announced the other day that the heavyweight wrestling champion was not Jim Londos after all, but "Strangler" Lewis ... did they blush when they said it? This probably is something to get indignant about ... but it is no longer possible to work up a lather in this corner over anything the commission may do ... they could elect Muldoon wrestling champion if they chose, and the dear paying clients would continue to drop their nickels into the slot. By the way, while it may be of no significance whatever, the Old Boy Bandit, James J. Johnston, is said to have a wrestler in tow named Richtoff, a huge Swede who rubs the skin right off the other grunter's chest, making necessary the purchase of chest wigs. (Make good, boys, go into the chest-wig business.) It seems to be in the books that a Lewis-Richtoff match is not far off.

YANKS GETTING MARRIED AND SETTLING DOWN

A few days after the late and lamented world series, Byrd and Dickey of the Yankees were married ... and it was announced that Lefty Gomez would take unto himself a bride ... would you say the boys have decided to settle down since, having seen the Cuba, they have seen everything? This writer, by the way, now clearly sees his mistake in picking the Cuba ... in the first few games, the Cub pitchers fell into the mistake of believing there would be somebody to pick to after the hitters had been walked ... in the Chicago games, it was a case of had control on the part of the same pitchers ... they threw 'em too close to the plate.

GUS THINKS UP FAST ONE FOR HIS BOYS

Ball players carry two or three bats to the plate with the idea that when they face the pitcher they will seem light and can swing with greater vigor ... Coach Gus Dorais at the University of Detroit (Rockne's old pal at Notre Dame) has adapted the idea to football training. Gus sends his players out for practice on a heavy field ... the theory is that when the boys are placed on a dry field for the games, they will scamper about like kittens ... then, too, if it should rain, they would feel right at home.

Saints Bag Hoover

MONTGOMERY'S PASS, RUN NET 2 TOUCHDOWNS

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 15.—Despite the earnest exhortation of their coaching staff, Santa Ana's "Sinning Saints" did not hit the sawdust trail here last night.

They were not very impressive masters of an impotent Herbert Hoover high school football team, 13-0, before a nocturnal assemblage of 2500 at Navy field.

Santa Ana's defense was still strong, limiting the Hooverites to two first downs, one on a penalty, but its offense left Coach "Tex" Oliver much to be desired.

Although the opposition's ability appeared questionable, Saint blocking was so ineffective that Oliver's backs made only four first downs during the entire contest—which is mighty close to an all-time low for Santa Ana eleven manned by the Texan.

Method in Madness?

Of course, Oliver didn't want to show too well. Navy field was full of scouts from other conference schools and there was no sense for the Saints to cut loose with anything more than enough to win; and they didn't. Captain "Red" Kidder didn't play at all, not even being in suit, and such men as Francis Conrad, Clarence Bolton, Bob Mitchell, Willard Noe and Jim Klepper operated less than half the time.

Santa Ana scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters, Bolton catching a forward pass over the goal for the first one and Bob Mitchell running through a hole at his own right tackle for the second. Jack Mitchell kicked goal.

Santa Ana was in distress throughout the early part of the

COSTAMESA, JIMMY AUSTIN CHRISTIANS GETS RELEASE RETAIN LEADS FROM BROWNS

Announcement was made today by Jimmy Austin, former crack third baseman for the St. Louis Browns and for the past 10 years coach of the team, that he had received his unconditional release from the club effective immediately.

Austin was in Santa Ana today, from Laguna Beach where he spends winters. He expects to stay in the Orange county resort, which really is his home throughout the winter months.

"Old Man Depression has taken its toll," Austin said today when interviewed about his release. He received a letter from L. C. McEvoy, vice president, in which it was stated that attendance had dropped severely during the past two years and that it was necessary for the Browns to retrain. One method of retraining is the cutting down of the coaching staff to one man.

Although Austin has been coach for the past 10 years and although he had been connected as player and coach for the past 22 years, Al Sotheron is given the job of coach for the Browns, it was announced.

The team has not announced the release of Austin, the first announcement coming from the former star himself today.

Austin said he was leaving the Browns with the best of feeling for the President, P. DeC. Ball and all the players and his release from the organization is simply one that could not be helped due to economic conditions which have greatly affected the attendance at ball games.

ANAHEIM AND GARDEN GROVE ARE WINNERS

ANAHEIM AND GARDEN GROVE high schools took the lead in the Orange League yesterday by winning their second straight league contests, the former defeating Tustin 13 to 0 and Garden Grove nicking Orange 12 to 6.

The Garden Grove-Orange game, played at Garden Grove was a nip and tuck affair, both teams looking for a defense.

But for Hapes, ace backfield man for the Grove team Orange might have won. His long sweeps around end was too much for the Orange team, no member of which seemed able to bring him down until after long gains.

Garden Grove scores in the second and third quarters the lone Orange score coming late in the third quarter when a 40 yard pass was caught by Dave Wettlin Jr., who placed the ball in scoring distance.

Tustin Loses

Dick Glover's Colonists continued their championship jaunt today by decisively whipping the Tustin Farmers 13-0 at the winner's field yesterday.

Starting slowly the Colonists pushed over their two touchdowns in the second period. Outside of this fatal quarter Tustin showed an iron-wall defense, however Cheatham made Anaheim's first touchdown on a line buck following a Blue and Gold sustained drive down the field. Anaheim's second touchdown came towards the last of the same period when, after recovering a Tustin fumble on the Coleman 25 yard line, Cheatham stepped back and tossed two short, bobbing passes just over the line of scrimmage to Smith, who caught both of them and galloped over for a touchdown. A line buck added the extra point.

Tustin's hopes received a cold blast when McIntire, sterling fullback, suffered a "charley horse" on the first play of the game and had to be replaced. He was back in the lineup for the third quarter, however, kicking and plunging with as much vim as ever.

The short Anaheim pass combined with clever running by Cheatham netted their offense ten first downs as against one for Tustin.

Win or lose, I shall use many substitutions tonight," said the Don mentor today. "There are several fine prospects who have not been in the lineup as much as I should prefer, and their chance is coming against Saratoga."

Cook is especially interested to see how Bill McDaniels, red-headed quarterback of Stanford, and Tom Holten, 230-pound tackle from Los Angeles Junior college, stand up under fire. Although not planning to start either, he will use both before the game is over.

Jimmie Lash, outstanding in drill this week, will start at left end tonight. Earle ("Tex") Harris, who plays at either wing position, probably will be Lash's running mate. Lucius Conkey and "Tono" Koral, tackles; Captain Jack Fredericks and Claude Williams, guards; and Raymond Hoar, center, are other probable starters.

Saratoga, ranking with U.S. Lexington as leading members of the navy league, will bring from San Pedro a husky squad which promises a real workout for Santa Ana's Dons.

Rain, unwelcome visitor last week, is not expected to ruin tonight's contest. Tickets are on sale at Hawley's and Walker's, Santa Ana sporting goods stores, or may be purchased at the Redlands center. In the reserved section are 49 cents, in the others, 25 cents.

LAST PRACTICE GAME FOR J. C. IS REAL TEST

BY PAUL WRIGHT

Undeclared in practice games, Coach Bill Cook's Santa Ana Junior college gridmen tonight will strive to keep this record clear at Municipal Bowl, where at 8 p.m. they go up against U.S.S. Saratoga, navy eleven, in their last real test before the Santa Ana-Pomona conference game.

Performance made by the Dons against Saratoga will go a long way in determining Santa Ana's starting lineup against Pomona, since previous showings of the players were "wiped out" in Santa Ana's unexpected 7 to 0 defeat from San Bernardino in first-round play of the Orange Empire conference.

Coach Cook's decision to start Bill Bouldin, former Anaheim star, at quarterback instead of the brilliant Harold Welty, virtually assures another replacement, Jim Daneri for Welty Smith at fullback. Welty does all the punting for the Dons, and since Bouldin is rather weak in this department, Cook must place Daneri, a fine punter, at fullback instead of Smith, a consistent ball-carrier but not a punter. It is possible that if Hideo Higashi starts at right half, he will do the punting, and Smith will remain in the regular lineup of which he is an important cog. Fred ("Porky") Bell will be at left half, unless Cook decides at the last moment to use Paul Jungkeit.

"Win or lose, I shall use many substitutions tonight," said the Don mentor today. "There are several fine prospects who have not been in the lineup as much as I should prefer, and their chance is coming against Saratoga."

'BLOND VENUS' OPENS SUNDAY AT BROADWAY

Two Big Features At West Coast Start Monday

TOBIN, O'BRIEN CORTEZ STARS IN FEATURES

Under its new policy, the Fox West Coast theater will show two big first run features each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the future and the first week's program brings to Santa Ana, "Hollywood Speaks" with Genevieve Tobin and Pat O'Brien and "The Phantom of Crestwood" starring Richard Cortez and a big cast.

The parlands that were bestowed on Miss Tobin for her performance in "One Hour With You" will be repeated as a result of her work in "Hollywood Speaks." With all her delicately poised charm, she interprets the dramatic role of an extra girl, who fights to stardom.

Pat O'Brien plays a newspaper columnist in the perfect fashion audiences have relied on Pat O'Brien to deliver since he smashed his way into popularity and fame in "The Front Page." Lucien Prival, as a temperamental movie director puts conviction into his role. Falt Harold is great as the menace, and Leni Stengel, Rita La Roy and Anderson Lawler, do excellently with smaller roles. An extra girl, who pines for stardom... who would commit suicide if she could attain her goal... stardom, by one means or another... that is the type of girl played by Genevieve Tobin. And before the picture ends, she has achieved her desire... leaving a

Radio Stars Coming Soon To Broadway

Radio fans are to be given the treat of their lives here starting next Thursday when "The Big Broadcast" comes to the Fox Broadway theater.

Why? Because all the big time stars of the air have come down to the screen and as well as hearing them, their fans can see them and when we say all, we mean just about all you hear on the air from time to time of national reputation.

In the cast are Stuart Erwin, Bing Crosby, Lela Hyams, Burns and Allen, Kate Smith, The Boswell Sisters, The Mills Brothers, Arthur Tracy (the street singer) Vincent Lopez and his orchestra and Cab Calloway and his band.

suicide and a murder in her wake.

Who killed Jenny Wren?

Did Ricardo Cortez... he had, like a thief in the night, stolen into the spooky old mansion and was next to her when a feathered dart punctured her brain... He was in desperate need of her jewelry....

But... there were 12 others in a weird house party who equally merited suspicion, among them Pauline Frederick, Harry Duncan, H. B. Warner, Gavin Gordon, Robert Elliott, Ivan Simpson, Sheets Gallagher, Matty Kemp and Robert McWade.

The answer to who killed Jenny Wren, gold-digging butterfly, is at the Fox West Coast theater, where Radio Pictures' "The Phantom of Crestwood" starts Monday.

FOX WEST COAST DANCER

Helen Wilmott, of Wilmott and Peters, the outstanding act at the Fox West Coast theater which opened last night to play through Sunday. Singing, dancing and comedy of a rare style makes Wilmott and Peters the best act on a bill of five, but all are far above the average.

"SOCIETY GIRL" STARTS SUNDAY AT WALKER'S

"Society Girl," the film drama from the Fox studios opening Sunday at Walker's State theater, pictures James Dunn and Peggy Shannon as the principals in a romance which has the heroine shying from wedding bells. With an unconcern for public opinion quite in keeping with the attitude of the smart set she represents, Miss Shannon brazenly leads Dunn on in a heart affair that is manifestly but a passing whim with her. Dunn, however, being a youngster from the masses where more old-fashioned standards are still in vogue, considers being in love and wanting to marry something the same thing.

Around this central point of difference, the dramatic conflict of the picture mounts through a vivid series of adventures said to be lightened by much humor and many deft characterizations to a climax that is reported to be as unusual as the dramatic theme. Spencer Tracy, as Dunn's chief adviser and closest pal, carries the chief responsibility in the supporting cast that also includes Walter Byron, Bert Hanlon and scores of others.

Sidney Lanfield, who guided Dunn to his recent success in "Dance Team," again directed him in "Society Girl." It is the film version of the John Larkin Jr. play of the same name.

WHEELER AND WOOLSEY GIVEN BIG RECEPTION

The thought of a prison football team is funny enough to begin with. But when it is carried out to the extreme in absurd equations, when the entire prison is given a collegiate atmosphere with bands, cheering sections and an enthusiastic alumni with quaint and original methods of obtaining new gridiron talent, the basic idea easily becomes a laugh riot.

Just how funny the whole nonsensical whim can be is demonstrated by the RKO-Radio picture, "Hold 'Em Jail," now at the Fox West Coast theater, with Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Edna May Oliver and Roscoe Ates in the leading roles.

The vehicle is the happiest selection possible for Wheeler and Woolsey. The picture is a delightful nonsense which makes it at once ideal for the comics' unique style of fun-making.

There never was and never will be a prison like Bidmore penitentiary, which is where Wheeler and Woolsey land when they boast of their imaginary football prowess in a tough dive where the "scouts" for Bidmore are looking for talent.

Also, there never was a warden like Edgar Kennedy, who had a sister like Edna May Oliver, who had a niece like pretty Betty Grable, who supplies that necessary "love interest" in collaboration with Wheeler.

Wheeler is presented as the "world's greatest athlete, the man who invented athlete's foot." The stuttering Roscoe Ates is the Bidmore quarterback who heartlessly accepts a parole at a critical moment of the "big game" and nearly wreck's Bidmore's chances for the "Penitentiary Conference Championship."

Wheeler and Woolsey win for Bidmore but not until they have resorted to every device of the alert gag writers' minds.

STARTS TOMORROW

Marlene Dietrich, as she appears in "The Blond Venus" which starts at the Fox Broadway theater tomorrow for four days.

DEITRICH IN NEW TYPE ROLE HERE 4 DAYS

Again Marlene Dietrich proves herself the actress, unequalled on the screen, in the title role of "Blonde Venus," her fifth starring picture and her fifth under the direction of Josef von Sternberg, which starts Sunday at the Fox Broadway theater.

It is a new Marlene Dietrich who makes her appearance in "Blonde Venus" — warm, loving, humanly-moved, and withal just as glamorously exotic as she ever was. At last she has a chance to give full play to the smoldering emotions, only hinted at in "Shanghai Express," "Dishonored," "Morocco" and "The Blue Angel."

You have seen her as the lover of men. Now—and it's true — she concentrates her affection briefly on a little boy, charming, lovable Dickie Moore, while she toys with the affections of two men, believing she loves them both. Bound to her husband, Herbert Marshall, by her devotion to her child, she finds her heart has wandered to another man, Cary Grant, she wins through to discovered by her husband, she is driven out into the streets clinging to her baby.

The flight of the "Blonde Venus" from her husband's wrath and the police has set on her trail in an effort to regain possession of the boy, is one of the most stirring romantic incidents ever written into a film.

But the flight is too much for her. The boy is taken from her. Freed, she seeks a stage career abroad, and is so successful that she wins recognition and a place in a New York revue. Through the pathetic struggle of the child, and the assistance of her old love, Cary Grant, she wins through to happiness. "Blonde Venus" does two things for Dietrich. It gives her the best story she has ever had, and it provides her with a character to portray that is thoroughly human and deeply emotional.

Dancer Gets Praise At West Coast

Vaudeville at the Fox West Coast theater this week is another one of those bills that will glad-ly cheer the hearts of vaudeville lovers, for it is about the best set of acts that has come here in a long time.

The act of Wilmott and Peters, slated fourth on the bill, took the house by storm last night, because of its originality, its pep and its comedy, while the dancing of Helen Wilmott, which comes so unexpectedly in the act, is the outstanding feature of the entire show.

Other acts include Jimmie and Kathleen, in a wire trick performance, Malacca Brothers, music; The Torrey High Steppers, which, by the way, has a contortionist who will be remembered, and the Three Rounders, an acrobatic act.

BARTHELMESS FILM ENDS ENGAGEMENT

Final showing of the new picture "Cabin in the Cotton," which again takes Richard Barthelmess back to the days when he played the simple country boy roles, will be made at the Fox Broadway theater tonight.

The plot, laid in the old South, shows the struggles of a youth who is brought up among poor white trash as an adopted son. There is much action and more of the backwoods drama than Barthelmess has played since "Tolable David."

KATE SMITH SIGNS FOR FILMS

"Moon Song," written by Fannie Hurst especially for the screen, has been selected as a starring vehicle for Kate Smith, famous Seawane Songbird of radio, who recently was signed by Paramount following her appearance in "The Big Broadcast." The singer is due in Hollywood October 31. Norman McCleod, director of "Horse Feathers," will direct.
